Supplemental Investigation Report

Narrative Continued (Page 2)

Case Number

16-01709K

January 18, 2016

On the above date I was assisting officers for a report of a burglary in progress at 618 E. Main Street. Upon arrival I observed officers on the East side of the building. I then went to the East side of the building. I then observed Ofc. Calchi placing his K-9 dog inside an open window. Ofc. Calchi then climbed in the window. Ofc. G. Phillips then started to enter the same window. Ofc. G. Phillips asked Ofc. Calchi, through the open window, if it was okay to enter. Ofc. Calchi advised Ofc. G. Phillips that it was okay to enter.

I then walked closer to the window, looked through the window, and observed Ofc. Calchi his K-9 partner and Ofc. G. Phillips, searching the interior of the building. I thought I heard someone inside yell "Cuffs, cuffs". I then started to enter the window, to assist the officers with finding the suspect, by placing my left leg inside of the window. It was at that point that the k-9 dog ran over toward me, and started biting my left leg. It should be noted that only my left leg was inside of the window. I then yelled for Ofc. Calchi to come get the dog off of my leg. Ofc. Calchi then came over and attempted to pull the dog off of my leg. After several attempts, the k-9 dog come off of my leg, and jumped out of the window. I was then pulled away from the window by Ofc. Ramos. I then hobbled to my patrol car and waited for an ambulance. Millville Rescue arrived and I was transported to the hospital.
